LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

OF

GRACE J. PARSONS

I, GRACE J. PARSONS, a resident of the City of Austin, Travis County, Texas, being of sound mind and at least eighteen (18) years of age, declare this instrument to be my Last Will and Testament (this "Will"). I revoke all wills and codicils that I have previously made.

ARTICLE I
FAMILY, DEFINITIONS, AND DECLARATIONS

1.1 Spouse. I am married to THOMAS A. PARSONS. Each reference in this Will to "my Spouse" is a reference to Thomas A. Parsons.

1.2 Children. I have two (2) children, TIMOTHY S. PARSONS and JOSHUA J. PARSONS. Each of them is referred to in this Will as a "Child," and together they are referred to as "my Children." If I have any additional child born to or adopted by me after the date of this Will, that child is also included in the term "my Children."

1.3 Descendants. "Descendants" means lineal descendants of all generations, including children adopted before the age of eighteen (18) and their descendants. A person in gestation at a relevant time who is later born alive is treated as having been living at that time.

1.4 Per Stirpes. Whenever property is to be divided "per stirpes" among the descendants of a designated ancestor, the property is divided into as many equal shares as there are then-living children of the ancestor and deceased children of the ancestor who left descendants then living. Each share allocated to a deceased child is then divided among that child's descendants in the same manner.

1.5 Survivorship. Except as otherwise provided in this Will, a person is not treated as having survived me unless that person is living on the one hundred twentieth (120th) hour after the time of my death. If there is not sufficient evidence that a person survived me by that period, the person is deemed not to have survived me. This Section applies to every gift under this Will.

1.6 Community Property. I acknowledge that my Spouse owns an undivided one-half (1/2) interest in the community property of our marriage. Nothing in this Will disposes of my Spouse's interest in community property. This Will disposes only of my one-half (1/2) interest in community property and all of my separate property.

1.7 Intentional Omission. I have intentionally made no provision in this Will for any person, including any heir at law or other person claiming to be my heir, except as expressly stated in this Will.

1.8 Divorce or Dissolution of Marriage. If at my death my marriage to my Spouse has been dissolved by divorce or annulment, or a suit for divorce or for a declaration of marital invalidity is pending, my Spouse is treated for all purposes of this Will as having predeceased me. This Section is in addition to, and does not limit, the effect of Texas Estates Code § 123.001.

ARTICLE II
PAYMENT OF DEBTS, EXPENSES, AND TAXES

2.1 Debts and Expenses. My Executor shall pay from my residuary estate my legally enforceable debts (other than debts secured by liens on property, which need not be paid before maturity), the expenses of my last illness and funeral, and the expenses of administering my estate.

2.2 Taxes. All estate, inheritance, transfer, and generation-skipping transfer taxes, together with interest and penalties, that become payable by reason of my death with respect to property passing under this Will shall be paid from my residuary estate as an expense of administration, without apportionment and without reimbursement from any beneficiary. Any such tax attributable to property passing outside this Will (including life insurance proceeds and retirement benefits) shall be apportioned to and paid by the recipients of that property as provided by applicable law.

2.3 Secured Property. If any property passing under this Will is subject to a lien or security interest at my death, the recipient of that property takes it subject to the lien. My Executor is not required to pay off the lien from other assets, unless my Executor determines that doing so is in the best interest of the estate.

ARTICLE III
TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY; EXECUTOR'S SOLE DISCRETION

3.1 Definition. "Tangible Personal Property" means all furniture, furnishings, household goods, jewelry, art, collections, clothing, personal effects, automobiles and other vehicles, and similar articles of tangible personal property that I own at my death, together with any insurance on those items. Tangible Personal Property does not include cash, securities, business interests, or property held for use in a trade or business.

3.2 Executor's Sole Discretion to Distribute. I give my Tangible Personal Property to those persons who are entitled to my residuary estate under Article IV, in such shares and in such manner as my Executor, in the Executor's sole and absolute discretion, determines. My Executor may distribute items in kind, may give different items to different beneficiaries, may make distributions in equal or unequal shares, and may sell any item and distribute the proceeds. My Executor is not required to equalize the value of distributions, to obtain appraisals, to obtain court approval, or to obtain the consent of any beneficiary. The Executor's decisions under this Section are final and binding on all persons interested in my estate, absent fraud or bad faith. I request, but do not require, that my Executor consider any written wishes I have left regarding particular items.

3.3 Distributions to Young Beneficiaries. Any item of Tangible Personal Property distributable to a Young Beneficiary (as defined in Section 4.6) may be distributed, at the Executor's discretion, (a) to the Trustee of that beneficiary's trust under Article V, (b) to a custodian for the beneficiary under the Texas Uniform Transfers to Minors Act, or (c) to a guardian of the beneficiary's person. The receipt of the distributee, guardian, or custodian discharges my Executor.

3.4 Costs of Delivery. My Executor may pay the reasonable costs of storing, insuring, packing, shipping, and delivering Tangible Personal Property as an expense of administration.

ARTICLE IV
DISPOSITION OF MY ESTATE

4.1 Residuary Estate. "My Residuary Estate" means all of the rest of my property of every kind and description, real and personal, tangible and intangible, wherever located, that I own or in which I have any interest at my death, including my one-half (1/2) interest in community property and my separate property, together with any lapsed or failed gift under this Will. My Residuary Estate does not include Tangible Personal Property, which is governed by Article III, but my Executor may apply the proceeds of any sale of Tangible Personal Property to the Residuary Estate.

4.2 Gift to My Spouse if My Spouse Survives Me. If my Spouse survives me, I give my entire Residuary Estate to my Spouse, outright and free of trust.

4.3 Gift to My Children if My Spouse Does Not Survive Me. If my Spouse does not survive me, I give my entire Residuary Estate to my Children who survive me, in equal shares.

4.4 Share of a Child Who Does Not Survive Me. If a Child of mine does not survive me but leaves one or more descendants who survive me, the share that would have passed to that Child passes to that Child's descendants who survive me, per stirpes. If a Child does not survive me and leaves no descendant who survives me, that Child's share shall be added to the shares of my other Child or Children who survive me, in equal shares.

4.5 Ultimate Contingent Gift to Sarah R. Roberts and Howard C. Long. If neither my Spouse nor any descendant of mine survives me, I give my entire Residuary Estate to SARAH R. ROBERTS and HOWARD C. LONG, in equal shares, if each of them survives me. If either of them does not survive me, the entire Residuary Estate passes to the other of them, if that person survives me. If neither of them survives me, my Residuary Estate passes to my heirs at law, determined as though I had died intestate, unmarried, and domiciled in Texas, under the Texas laws of intestate succession then in effect.

4.6 Young Beneficiaries and Beneficiaries Under Disability. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Will, any property (other than property passing to my Spouse outright) that becomes distributable outright to (a) a person who has not attained the age of twenty-five (25) years (a "Young Beneficiary"), or (b) a person who, in the reasonable judgment of the Trustee or Executor, is unable to manage property prudently by reason of incapacity or disability, shall instead be held and administered in a separate trust under Article V. Distributions to a Young Beneficiary under this Section are made in accordance with Article V.

4.7 Failed Gifts. If any gift under this Will fails for any reason, the property that is the subject of the failed gift passes under the alternative provisions of this Article IV, and not otherwise.

ARTICLE V
TESTAMENTARY TRUST FOR YOUNG AND MINOR BENEFICIARIES

5.1 Establishment of Trusts. Any property that this Will directs to be held in trust for a Young Beneficiary shall be held by the Trustee in a separate trust for each beneficiary (each, a "Beneficiary's Trust"). Each Beneficiary's Trust is a testamentary trust created under this Will, effective upon my death, and is governed by this Article and, to the extent not inconsistent with this Will, the Texas Trust Code. The Trustee may hold the assets of separate Beneficiary's Trusts in a common investment account for investment convenience only, provided that each trust is accounted for separately.

5.2 Distribution Age. The Trustee shall hold each Beneficiary's Trust until the beneficiary attains the age of twenty-five (25) years (the "Distribution Age"). Before the beneficiary attains the Distribution Age, the Trustee shall not distribute the principal of the Beneficiary's Trust outright to the beneficiary, except as authorized by Section 5.3.

5.3 Discretionary Distributions Before the Distribution Age. Before a beneficiary attains the Distribution Age, the Trustee may distribute to or for the benefit of the beneficiary so much of the net income and principal of the Beneficiary's Trust as the Trustee, in the Trustee's sole discretion, considers advisable for the beneficiary's health, education (including college, graduate, vocational, and private school tuition and related expenses), maintenance, and support. In making such distributions, the Trustee may consider other resources known to the Trustee that are reasonably available to the beneficiary, but is not required to do so. Undistributed net income shall be added to principal. The Trustee may make distributions directly to the beneficiary, to a custodian or guardian for the beneficiary, or by paying expenses directly to the persons providing goods or services to the beneficiary.

5.4 Distribution at Distribution Age. When a beneficiary attains the Distribution Age, the Trustee shall distribute all remaining property of that beneficiary's Beneficiary's Trust to the beneficiary, outright and free of trust, and the trust shall terminate.

5.5 Maximum Trust Duration. Notwithstanding Section 5.2, no Beneficiary's Trust shall continue for more than twenty-one (21) years after the date of my death (the "Maximum Trust Period"). If a Beneficiary's Trust remains in existence at the end of the Maximum Trust Period, the Trustee shall distribute the trust property as follows: (a) to the beneficiary, if the beneficiary has attained the Distribution Age; or (b) if the beneficiary has not attained the Distribution Age, to a custodian selected by the Trustee (who may be the Trustee) to hold the property for the beneficiary under the Texas Uniform Transfers to Minors Act, Texas Property Code Chapter 141, until the beneficiary attains the Distribution Age (or, if earlier, the maximum age permitted under that Act). The custodian shall hold and apply the property as the Trustee would have done under this Article.

5.6 Death of a Beneficiary Before Termination. If a beneficiary dies before the Beneficiary's Trust terminates, the Trustee shall distribute the remaining trust property to the beneficiary's descendants who survive the beneficiary, per stirpes; if none, to my descendants then living, per stirpes; and if none, to Sarah R. Roberts and Howard C. Long in equal shares, or to the survivor of them, in accordance with Section 4.5. Any property passing to a Young Beneficiary under this Section shall be held in trust under this Article.

5.7 Spendthrift Provision. Each Beneficiary's Trust is a spendthrift trust within the meaning of Texas Property Code § 112.035. No beneficiary may anticipate, assign, sell, encumber, pledge, or otherwise voluntarily or involuntarily transfer any interest in the income or principal of a trust under this Article before actual receipt of the distribution. No such interest shall be subject to attachment, garnishment, execution, sequestration, bankruptcy, or the claims of any creditor or any spouse of the beneficiary before actual receipt by the beneficiary, except to the extent that applicable law does not permit such a restriction to be enforced. A beneficiary's interest in a trust under this Article is the beneficiary's separate property and is not a marital asset of the beneficiary.

5.8 Trustee. SARAH R. ROBERTS shall serve as Trustee of each Beneficiary's Trust. If Sarah R. Roberts fails to qualify, dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to serve, HOWARD C. LONG shall serve as alternate Trustee. If neither of them is able to serve, a successor Trustee shall be designated in writing by the last serving Trustee, or, if none, by a majority of the adult beneficiaries then eligible to receive distributions, or, if none, by a court of competent jurisdiction. No successor Trustee shall be required to post bond or other security in any jurisdiction.

5.9 Trustee's Powers. In addition to the powers conferred by the Texas Trust Code and other applicable law, the Trustee, acting in a fiduciary capacity and without court order, may exercise the following powers:

(a) Sale of Trust Property. Sell, at public or private sale, for cash or on credit, exchange, or otherwise dispose of any trust property, including any real or personal property transferred to the trust by my Executor, on such terms and conditions as the Trustee considers advisable, without notice to any beneficiary and without liability for any loss in value;

(b) Retention of Property. Retain any property received by the trust, including closely held business interests, residences, and other non-diversified or non-income-producing property, for as long as the Trustee considers advisable;

(c) Distribution in Kind. Make any distribution in cash or in kind, or partly in each, and in non-pro rata shares, without regard to the income tax basis of particular assets;

(d) Investment. Invest and reinvest in any kind of property, including mutual funds, exchange-traded funds, and bonds, in accordance with the standard of care imposed by Texas law;

(e) Real Estate. Acquire, improve, lease for terms within or beyond the trust term, mortgage, encumber, partition, and manage real property;

(f) Borrowing. Borrow money from any lender, including the Trustee, and secure the loan with trust property;

(g) Business Interests. Continue, operate, sell, liquidate, or incorporate any business or entity in which the trust holds an interest, and vote any securities or exercise any rights appurtenant to them;

(h) Agents and Advisers. Employ and compensate attorneys, accountants, investment advisers, custodians, property managers, and other agents, and delegate investment and management functions as permitted by law;

(i) Claims. Compromise, settle, abandon, or litigate any claim in favor of or against the trust;

(j) Nominee Title and Accounts. Hold property in the name of a nominee and open and maintain bank, brokerage, and custodial accounts;

(k) Tax Matters. Make any tax election available to the trust and allocate any generation-skipping transfer tax exemption to the trust;

(l) Digital Assets. Exercise the authority granted in Section 9.1 with respect to digital assets held by the trust;

(m) Merger and Division. Merge a Beneficiary's Trust with another trust having substantially the same terms, or divide a trust into separate trusts, if the trust beneficiaries are the same or the division does not impair any beneficiary's rights.

5.10 Information and Accounts. The Trustee shall keep accurate records of trust transactions and shall furnish an annual written report of the trust's assets, receipts, and disbursements to each adult beneficiary who is eligible to receive distributions and to the guardian or custodian of each minor beneficiary. No Trustee shall be required to account to any court, unless required by law.

5.11 Trustee Compensation and Bond. Each Trustee is entitled to reasonable compensation for services and to reimbursement of reasonable expenses. No Trustee shall be required to furnish bond or other security in any jurisdiction.

ARTICLE VI
GUARDIANSHIP OF MY MINOR CHILDREN

6.1 Nomination of Guardian of the Person. If, at my death or at any later time, a Child of mine who is a minor has no surviving parent who is able and willing to serve as that child's guardian, I nominate SARAH R. ROBERTS as guardian of the person of each such minor child. If Sarah R. Roberts fails to qualify or ceases to serve, I nominate HOWARD C. LONG as alternate guardian of the person. This nomination is made under Chapter 1104 of the Texas Estates Code and is intended to be given the fullest effect permitted by law.

6.2 Temporary Local Guardian. Pending the time when a permanent guardian nominated in Section 6.1 is able to take possession of a minor child, I nominate MICHAEL T. FISHER as temporary local guardian of the person of each minor child, to serve if the permanent guardian is not immediately available to take custody of the child, is not located in a position to do so, or has not yet qualified. The temporary local guardian may take immediate custody of the minor child, provide for the child's residence, care, education, and supervision, and consent to necessary medical, dental, and psychological care, subject to any order of a court of competent jurisdiction. The temporary local guardian shall serve only until the permanent guardian is able to take possession, and shall then promptly deliver custody of the child and the child's records and property to the permanent guardian. The temporary local guardian shall not be required to post bond, and the temporary local guardian's service shall not be construed to affect any parent's rights.

6.3 Guardian of the Estate. Property for the benefit of a minor is to be held in trust under Article V, and I intend that no guardianship of the estate be required. If a guardianship of the estate is nonetheless required for any property passing to a minor under this Will, I nominate Sarah R. Roberts, or if she is unable to serve, Howard C. Long, as guardian of the estate, without bond, and I direct that such property be transferred to the Trustee under Article V whenever permitted by law.

6.4 Relationship to Trust. A guardian of the person nominated under this Article has no authority over property held in trust under Article V, unless the guardian also serves as Trustee. The guardian may request distributions from the Trustee for a minor child's health, education, maintenance, and support, and the Trustee shall consider those requests in accordance with Article V.

ARTICLE VII
EXECUTOR

7.1 Appointment of Executor. I nominate my Spouse, THOMAS A. PARSONS, as Executor of this Will. If my Spouse fails to qualify or ceases to act as Executor, I nominate SARAH R. ROBERTS as alternate Executor. References in this Will to "my Executor" include my Spouse and, when serving, Sarah R. Roberts, and any successor appointed under this Will or by law.

7.2 Independent Administration. I direct that my estate be administered as an independent administration under Chapter 401 of the Texas Estates Code, to the fullest extent permitted by law, with no court supervision of the administration beyond the minimum required by law. My Executor need not account to any court or obtain court approval of any act.

7.3 Bond Waived. No bond, surety, or other security shall be required of any Executor named in this Will, in any jurisdiction.

7.4 Executor's Sole Discretion Regarding Tangible Personal Property. My Executor has the sole and absolute discretion described in Article III with respect to the distribution of my Tangible Personal Property.

7.5 Powers of Executor. In addition to all powers granted to an independent executor under the Texas Estates Code and other applicable law, my Executor may exercise the following powers, without court order and without notice to any person, except as required by law:

(a) to retain any property I own at death, including property that is not diversified or that does not produce income;

(b) to sell, at public or private sale, for cash or on credit, exchange, lease, or otherwise dispose of any real or personal property, subject to any homestead or exempt property rights of my Spouse or minor children under Texas law;

(c) to borrow money, mortgage, pledge, or encumber any property of my estate, and to renew or extend any existing indebtedness;

(d) to continue, operate, sell, liquidate, or incorporate any business interest of mine, and to vote securities and exercise any rights appurtenant to them;

(e) to make any distribution in cash or in kind, or partly in each, in non-pro rata shares, without regard to the income tax basis of particular assets;

(f) to compromise, settle, or litigate any claim by or against my estate;

(g) to employ and compensate attorneys, accountants, appraisers, investment advisers, and other agents, and to rely on their advice;

(h) to make all tax elections available to my estate, including elections under federal and state tax law, without adjustment among beneficiaries;

(i) to access, inspect, and close any safe deposit box and to inventory its contents;

(j) to execute and deliver deeds, assignments, and other instruments, and to take any other action necessary or appropriate to administer my estate;

(k) to exercise the authority granted in Section 9.1 with respect to digital assets; and

(l) to act as ancillary executor or to appoint an ancillary representative in any jurisdiction outside Texas where I own property, without bond.

7.6 Compensation and Expenses. My Executor is entitled to reasonable compensation for services rendered and to reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred in the administration of my estate.

7.7 Resignation and Successor. My Executor may resign by written notice given to the adult beneficiaries and filed with any court in which my estate is pending. If no named Executor qualifies or continues to serve, a successor shall be appointed as provided by Texas law.

7.8 Standard of Conduct. My Executor shall act in good faith and with reasonable care in the administration of my estate. My Executor is not liable for any act or omission made in good faith, except for gross negligence, bad faith, or willful misconduct, and is not required to make any investigation or inquiry merely to confirm information provided by a beneficiary or other person.

ARTICLE VIII
GENERAL FIDUCIARY PROVISIONS

8.1 Fiduciaries Defined. "Fiduciary" means each Executor, Trustee, and guardian nominated or appointed under this Will, and each successor to any of them.

8.2 Multiple Fiduciaries. If two or more persons serve as co-fiduciaries at the same time, they shall act by majority, or unanimously if only two are serving, and any co-fiduciary may delegate administrative functions to another co-fiduciary in writing. A fiduciary is not liable for the act or omission of a co-fiduciary, except as provided by law.

8.3 Dealings with Trust Property and Interested Persons. A fiduciary who is also a beneficiary may exercise discretion in favor of that beneficiary only as permitted by the terms of this Will and applicable law, and shall not participate in any decision to make a distribution to himself or herself except as permitted by law. A fiduciary may purchase property from the estate or trust only if the transaction is fair to the beneficiaries and is fully disclosed in writing to all adult beneficiaries.

8.4 Reliance by Third Parties. Any person dealing with a fiduciary may rely conclusively on the fiduciary's written certification of the fiduciary's authority, the identity of the beneficiaries, and the terms of this Will, without inquiring into the fiduciary's application of any money or property delivered to the fiduciary.

8.5 Exoneration and Liability. No fiduciary shall be liable for any loss to the estate or trust that results from a good-faith exercise or non-exercise of the powers granted in this Will, except for gross negligence, bad faith, willful misconduct, or a breach of duty of loyalty.

8.6 Continuation of Powers. The powers of each fiduciary continue after the termination of any trust or the closing of my estate, to the extent necessary to wind up the trust or estate, to make final distributions, and to comply with any reporting obligation.

ARTICLE IX
DIGITAL ASSETS, DISPOSITION OF REMAINS, AND NO-CONTEST PROVISION

9.1 Digital Assets. My Executor and each Trustee may access, manage, control, copy, transfer, deactivate, and delete my digital assets and accounts, including email, social media, cloud storage, and online financial accounts, to the fullest extent permitted under the Texas Revised Uniform Fiduciary Access to Digital Assets Act, Chapter 2001 of the Texas Estates Code, and other applicable law. I consent to the disclosure to my Executor and Trustee of the contents of my electronic communications to the extent that such consent is required by law.

9.2 Disposition of Remains; Funeral Expenses. Pursuant to Chapter 711 of the Texas Health and Safety Code, I designate my Spouse, THOMAS A. PARSONS, as my agent to control the disposition of my remains. If my Spouse is not living or is unable or unwilling to serve, I designate SARAH R. ROBERTS as my agent for that purpose. I request that my remains be disposed of in a manner consistent with my wishes as expressed to my agent. My Executor shall pay the reasonable costs of my funeral, burial or cremation, and memorial services from my residuary estate, as an expense of administration.

9.3 No-Contest Provision. If any beneficiary under this Will, directly or indirectly, files or joins in any court proceeding to contest the validity of this Will or any of its provisions, without probable cause, then all gifts to that beneficiary under this Will are revoked, and the property so revoked passes as though that beneficiary had predeceased me.

ARTICLE X
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

10.1 Governing Law. The validity, construction, and effect of this Will are governed by the laws of the State of Texas, regardless of where any property is located, where any fiduciary resides, or where any trust is administered.

10.2 Construction. In this Will, the singular includes the plural and the plural includes the singular, and each gender includes the other genders. Headings are for convenience only and do not affect the meaning of any provision. The words "include" and "including" are not words of limitation.

10.3 Severability. If any provision of this Will is held invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect, and the invalid provision shall be construed to carry out my intent as nearly as possible.

10.4 Taxes Not Affected by Fiduciary Discretion. My Executor and Trustee may make any tax elections and allocations available under federal or state law without adjustment among the beneficiaries, and no fiduciary shall be liable to any beneficiary for any good-faith decision regarding such elections.

ARTICLE XI EXECUTION

I sign my name to this Will, consisting of eleven (11) pages including the attestation clause and self-proving affidavit, on May 13, 2025, at Austin, Travis County, Texas, and for identification I have initialed each page of this Will.

_____

GRACE J. PARSONS, Testator

ATTESTATION CLAUSE

The undersigned attesting witnesses, each being at least fourteen (14) years of age, certify that on May 13, 2025, GRACE J. PARSONS (the "Testator") declared to us that the foregoing instrument, consisting of the pages identified above, is her Last Will and Testament. The Testator signed the instrument in our presence (or acknowledged her signature to us), and we, at her request, in her presence, and in the presence of each other, signed our names below as attesting witnesses. We believe the Testator to be of sound mind and at least eighteen (18) years of age and under no constraint or undue influence. We are not named as beneficiaries under this Will.

_____ _____

Witness 1: JOSE P. HARRIS

Address: _____

_____

Date: May 13, 2025

Witness 2: GERALDINE R. WATSON

Address: _____

_____

Date: May 13, 2025

SELF-PROVING AFFIDAVIT
(Texas Estates Code § 251.104)

THE STATE OF TEXAS §
§
COUNTY OF TRAVIS §

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared GRACE J. PARSONS, the Testator, and JOSE P. HARRIS and GERALDINE R. WATSON, the attesting witnesses, known to me to be the persons whose names are subscribed to the foregoing instrument, and all of whom, being by me first duly sworn, declared to me and to each other as follows:

The Testator: "My name is Grace J. Parsons. I am the Testator named in the foregoing instrument, which is my Last Will and Testament. I am at least eighteen (18) years of age and of sound mind. I signed the instrument willingly, as my free and voluntary act, for the purposes expressed in it. I declared to the attesting witnesses that it is my Last Will and Testament, and I request that they act as witnesses to it."

The Witnesses: "We are the attesting witnesses named in the foregoing instrument. The Testator declared the instrument to be her Last Will and Testament and signed it in our presence, or acknowledged her signature to us. At the Testator's request and in her presence, we signed the instrument as attesting witnesses on the date stated. We are each at least fourteen (14) years of age. We believed at that time, and believe now, that the Testator was of sound mind and at least eighteen (18) years of age and was under no constraint or undue influence. We are not named as beneficiaries under the instrument."

_____	_____	_____
GRACE J. PARSONS	JOSE P. HARRIS	GERALDINE R. WATSON
Testator	Witness	Witness

SWORN TO AND SUBSCRIBED before me, the undersigned authority, by GRACE J. PARSONS, the Testator, and by JOSE P. HARRIS and GERALDINE R. WATSON, the attesting witnesses, on May 13, 2025, at Austin, Travis County, Texas. To certify which, witness my hand and seal of office.

_____
Notary Public, State of Texas
Printed name of notary: _____
My commission expires: _____

(NOTARY SEAL)